Lydia Thompson at the Fourteenth -Herrmann at the People's.

Rose Coghlan was the star at the Grand opera-House last night, and the play was a perothy's Dilemma," by no means one of the shining gems of Miss Coghian's reper-

That seemingly admirable example of perpetual youth, known as Lydia Thompson, was at the Fourteenth Street Theatre lassingly, arch, skittish and interesting as ever. Miss Thompson is always an artist, and she is distinctly worth seeing to-day. She has discarded buriesque and adopted the Rosina vokes style of bill. Three piars were acted __"Uncie Dan," "A Bad Penny" and "A Brica-Brac" shop. In the last two Miss Thompson appeared to great advantage. The That seemingly admirable example of per-Bric-a-Brac" shop. In the last two Miss Thompson appeared to great advantage. The performance pleased the audience.

PEOPLE'S THEATRE.

Prof. Herrmann, who has not favored the Prof. Herrmann, who has not favored the metropolis very much of late, mystified a large audience at the People's Theatre last night in his own inimitable way. There is hottlick done by Herrmann that is not thoroughly artistically manipulated, and this has been the great secret of his success. Herrmann is at his best in the simple feats with which he generally opens his entertainments. He was assisted by Mme. Herrmann, who aided him very materially in making the programme enjoyable. WINDSOR THEATRE.

WINDSOR THEATER.

The play at the Windsor Theatre last night was the good old favorite called "Uncle Tom's Cabin," that can always draw an audience, if its visits be few and far between. It is some time since we have had "Uncle Tom" in the city, and there was a large audience. It was Webber's company, and little Carrie Webber, who, by the bye, has been "little" for a long time, played the coveted part of Topay. The jubilee singers sang some admirable selections. The play was realistically staged.

H. R. JACOBS' THEATER.

H. R. JACOBS' THEATRE.

The pioneer tank play, "A Dark Secret," was the attraction at H. R. Jacob's Theatre last night. The chief attraction, of course, is the Henley regatta scene, in which the real wet water plays a prominent part. This scene was beautifully staged. The steam launches and other craft that made the picture realistic were greeted with much enthusiasm. George Hoamer, the well-known oarsman, who has been associated with "A Dark Secret" for some time, appeared as usual. NEW PARK THEATRE.

NEW PARK THEATRE.

A play called "O'Flynn in Mexico" was rroduced at the New Park Theatre last night. It is described as a comic melodrama, and those who like that idea will do well to see it. It is a comic melodrama, with a wicked uncle and a lovely maiden, who dances a breakdown. The cast included Alfred Kelcy, F. Abbott, George 'Kenne'y, Frederick G. Ross, John Casey, George F. Devere, Charles McDonald, James Morton, Austin Walsh, Lillis La Rose and Annie Dougla. 8.

"The Seven Ages of Our World; or, From Chaos to Man" was given for the first time in public at the scientific theatre Urania in the Music Hall inst night. It delighted a large audience. The scenes showing the evolution of the world from chaos were beautifully presented and were received with much applause. The picture of chaos was admirable and would alone be worth seeing. The new entertainment will undoubtedly be as successful as its prodecessor.

HARLEN OFER-MOTEL.

E. L. Davenport's old play, "St. Marc," was the attraction at the Hariem Opera-House last night, with Joseph Haworth as the star. The play is romantic and interesting, and the qualities that were appreciated in it years ago may be conscientiously appreciated even now. Mr. Haworth as the soldier of fortune did some good work. The role gives him opportunities and he loses none of them. Maida. Craigen played the leading feminine role. The company was fairly good.

Villainy was folied last night at the Columbus Theatre and virtue was triumphant. This is flot a new arrangement of stage events, but it is one that seems to be a perpetual necessity, and Manager Hammerstein has been giving his patrons many instances of it lately. The play was "The Midnight Alarm," in which the melodramatic situations are secondary only to the mechanical effects. These were displayed in full force, and they seemed to fully satisfy an audience that expected them. COLUMBUS THEATRE.

There were a number of new features introduced into Barnum & Bailey's circus last night at the Madison Square Garden. The big structure was crowded, and the people is but one way—is by CAREwere most enthusiastic. The spectacle called "Columbus Discovering America" was gorgeously presented. It is, perhaps, the best thing of its king that the astute Kiralfy has ever directed, and its subject seems to appeal strongly to the audience. There is a great demand for brooks descriptive of the entertainment, which is a boom fer history.

TONY PASTOR'S. TONY PASTOR'S.

The entertainment at Tony Pastor's last night was announced as "strong, bright, new and runny," and the adjectives were entirely appropriate. The performance was excellent. Those who appeared were Lydia Yeamans, George Murphy, the Silver Bell Quarter, whilam Jerome, with his songs and parodies; Frank E. McNish, the "graceful and athletic specialist;" Lillie Weston, the Glenroy Brothers, Clark and Williams, James Richmond and Lettle Glenroy, "comedy boomers," and the lady known as Senora Nena Tatall.

Niblo's Garden.

aporothy's Dilemma," by no means one of the shining gems of Miss Coghian's repertoure. The play is not without amusing spots and quaint situations, but it is iar-letched, and scarcely legitimately so. Miss Coghian did good work, as she generally does, and was, in fact, the life, the backbone, the everything of the piece. The cast, on the whole, was good, and the play was well put upon the stage.

FOURTEENTH STREET THEATE.

NIBLO'S GARDEN.

William Muidoon's athletes and the Henry Burlesque Company supplied the entertain-ment at Niblo's Garden as the test and the Henry Burlesque Company supplied the entertain-ment at Niblo's Garden last night. The programme consisted of a comedicate called "Our Vassar Girls," by J. H. Smith; a travesty called "Ta-la, and the Ta-la;" Grinco-king of the piece. The cast, on the whole, was good, and the play was well put upon the stage.

HUBER'S MUSEUM.

DORIS'S MUSEUM.

DOMIS'S MURRUM.

The Fanny Herring Dramatic Company ore sented "The Bandit Merznant of Genoa" in Theatre No. 1 of Boris's Eighth Avenue Museum yesterday. There were large and decidedly appreciative audiences, for Fanny Herring is still able to please a portion of the theatre-going public. In Theatre No. 2 was Venetta and Adams's Vaud-ville Company, and in Theatre No. 3 the Frumont Comedy Company. The curlo halls revealed Jo-Jo, the dog-taced boy, and a number of other features.

K STER AND BIAL'S.

Mile. Marie Paera is coming to the end of her engagement at Koster & Bial's concert hall. She appeared there again last night and will continue to make herself heard until and will continue to make nerself neard thit the end of the week. Pacra is not beautiful, but she has a certain magnetism of her own. Carmencita danced, the Spanish students did their usual work, the "Fra Diavolo" travesty was continued, and the vaudeville programme was made interesting by John Leciair, Cain and Loreno, and others. WORTH'S MUSEUM.

WORTH'S MUSEUM.

The "Come-and-See-Mo-at-it" dance by the Guatemaian ballet dancer Neyo at Worth's yesterday was an entertaining piece of buriesque. The ant-bears are still attracting much attention at this house. They are strange animals. Wood & Beasley made music and fun in the theatre and caused a deal of laughter. The other stage performers, singers, dancers and comedians, were good.

The judges failed to agree and Referee Mike Sullivan ordered another round. Hateman got the decision.

known amateur middle-weight boxers, Nick Callan, of brooklyn, and Charlie Kammer, of the West Side A. C. This battle will virtually settle the amateur middle-weight championship of America, and the winner, in order to obtain the laurel wreath of victory, will have to make a flerce and game struggle. Five other bouts between well-known boxers will take place the same evening, among the contestants being Jake Pitz, Mike Hughes, Mike Leonard, Christie McManus, Frank Day, Billy Ernst, Billy Ross and Mike Martin.

The Clinton Athletic Club, under the direction of Charley White, is making a great effort to give a first-class boxing exhibition at the Metropolitian Opera-House April 16. There will be ten bouts between well-known amateur righters. It was the intention of the managers to have Sam Kelly, of the West Side A. C., meet Tim Murphy, of the Pastimes. Hughey Boyle, of Elizabeth, has been substituted in Murphy's place.

In speaking of the prospects of the Manhattan Athletic Club in rowing events this year Secretary Hughes said: "We did anticipate building a new boat-house this Spring, but have decided to build a long shed in addition to the present quarters for the accommodation of the shells. Next year we will erect a line boat-house. One that will compare favorably with any in this vicinity."

The athletic grounds of the New York Athletic Club at Travers Island are being put in excellent condition for the summer's work. The Club people expect that the annual spring outdoor games will be iar ahead of any yet held at the Club's Summer home.

The Xavier Athletic Club has several good men in training for track events. The Xaviers are doing most of their preliminary work by running cross-country.
